

“WELCOME TO COUNTRY”

Observing Traditional Protocols

In Australia it has been traditional for over 40,000 years that when traveling through or visiting the land of another people one should first seek permission from the local elders.

The people of this part of Australia are called the Jagera and since the dreamtime they have been responsible for protecting its integrity and for ensuring its sustainability. They are part of the land and the land is part of them.

The next welcoming ceremony will be held:

At: Riverbank Park, Boundary Street,
West End (UBD Map 159 H:20)

On: Sunday 2nd of August 2009

From: 10am to 11am (BYO Chair)

Light Refreshments provided

RSVP: thegabba.ward@ecn.net.au or on
Ph: 3403 2165 by Friday 31st of July 2009

At the ceremony you will be welcomed and introduced to some of the stories that explain this land and our responsibility for it.

Brought to you by Cr Helen Abrahams & West End Community Association
